Social Skills curriculum: You are a Social Detective: Explaining Social Thinking to Kids
by Michelle Garcia Winner

Social Skills include:

- ◆ BEING A SOCIAL DETECTIVE— using our eyes, ears, and brains to figure out what others are planning to do next and what they mean by their words and actions
- ◆ SOCIAL THINKING—learning social thinking vocabulary and practicing these skills, such as body in the group, brain in the group, and thinking with your eyes
- ◆ EXPECTED AND UNEXPECTED BEHAVIOURS—teaching awareness in social situations and expectations people have within those situations
- ◆ SOCIAL SMARTS—understanding that other people have thoughts about us and we have thoughts about them

Skills are taught through comics, discussion, scripted role-playing and engagement through facilitated games and activities. Take home assignments of the skills that are taught during each session will be provided to families to give them an opportunity to practice and maintain the skills throughout the week.
